Truckloads of Material Being Donated by Householders For Auction Sale

Many Useful Articles Have Been Collected; Boys Will be Out Tonight and Friday; Sale Starts at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Lions and Air Cadets with the aid of company trucks are busy gathering a harvest of material from practically every household which will be placed under the auctioneer's hammer on Main street Saturday at 2 p.m. The boys report wonderful support from the public in donating material and on Tuesday evening received five truck loads of material ranging from kitchen ranges, heaters, gas stoves, radios, gramophones, fern stands, suitcases, and a host of other items. The collectors will visit every section of town and refuse to take the excuse, "I am so sorry boys, I haven't anything suitable to give you." According to the collectors there must be something lying around those homes for which householders have no further use. They want everyone to enter into the spirit of this auction and co-operate wholeheartedly. It is a splendid opportunity to get rid of a gramophone, radio, lounge, etc., which has been taking up space in the home and for which the family has no further use. The more material collected the greater will be the revenue derived by the Lions for their war work.

Auctioneer Newby, of Lethbridge, will be at the Grand Union parking lot at 2 p.m. Saturday, and given perfect weather expects to put the sale over to a successful conclusion.

Hundreds are expected from neighboring towns as an advertising campaign has been conducted throughout the Pass as well as in Michel and Natal. It is the first public auction of this kind ever staged in Coleman and according to those who have witnessed similar events in other towns there is more fun than a picnic at the auctioneer's wiscrack and talks his way into a sale.

Many Attended Funeral of Mrs. Marjory McLeod

Minerva Chapter Eastern Star Conducted Star Burial Service; Interment Made in Union Cemetery.

Many friends and acquaintances attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Marjory McLeod on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The funeral was held from the local Funeral Parlours and proceeded to St. Paul's United church where the Rev. J. E. Kirk conducted the service.

The hymns were "O God of Bethel," a very great favorite of Mrs. McLeod, and "Abide with Me." Rev. J. E. Kirk took for his text the third verse of the first Psalm: "And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also doth not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper." This text was used as being descriptive of the deeply religious life of the deceased. Her religion was not merely one of form, but essentially one of force, which gave her spiritual and moral resources sufficient for any occasion, so that when duty said this ought to be done, she was able to do it, and when trouble said this must be endured she was able to stand it.

Reference was made to her many years of active service in the church and community, and to the efficiency and keenness of mind even to the time of her passing, and the kindly motives and the cheerful disposition that were so characteristic of her life. She has passed on to life beyond, but her life and deeds shall remain a living inspiration to all who knew her.

Minerva Chapter of the Eastern Star members were present and conducted the Star's burial service. Flowers, representing Star points, were dropped on the casket. The hymn "Nearer My God to Thee" was then sung.

Palbearers were H. C. McBurney, W. L. Rippon, J. Balloch, F. Cox, J. Emmerson and T. Flynn. Interment was made in the local union cemetery.

Relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Herdman McLeod, of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Fraser McLeod and Margaret, of Calgary, Mr. Rod McLeod, of Mercoel, LAC Fraser McLeod, of Bella Bella, B.C.; Miss Marjorie McLeod, of Gleichen, and the relatives residing in the Pass.

A grandson, Corporal Roy McLeod, R.C.A.F., of Paulson, Man., arrived too late for the funeral.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many friends who gave their kindness, sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother—The McLeod Family.

188,356 articles of comforts and clothing were distributed at Eastern Canadian Ports to men of the Canadian and British Navy and Merchant Marine last year by the Canadian Red Cross.

"Hitler would just love to see how smart you look!"

"Yes, you're smart . . . or are you? I thought I was smart too, back in the 20's. Then the depression came and taught me a lesson!"

"We'd be a lot smarter if we put less of our money into our own outfits and more of it into the outfits of the boys who are defending us. How? By pledging ourselves to do without so that they may have plenty to do with!"

"You want them to win, don't you? Well then, buy War Savings Stamps every week . . . That's how you can help them. Besides, by saving, you'll help keep prices down and have something for a rainy day. Let's be really smart!"

Drive Starts on Monday; Dominion Body's Objective Set at $9,000,000

Money to be Directed Into Many Channels of War Relief; Financial Needs of St. John Ambulance Also Included in Red Cross Budget.

Starting May 11, the Canadian Red Cross Society will ask the people of the Dominion to subscribe $9,000,000 to finance the work of the Society.

The money will be used for food parcels for Canadian and British prisoners of war in Germany and Italy; comforts for the armed forces, Navy, Merchant Marine, air raid sufferers, and hospital and medical supplies; disaster and emergency, including assistance to Allied Red Cross societies, and Blood Donor Service. All are vital functions of the Canadian Red Cross—each in itself plays an important part in the structure of this great service for suffering humanity.

As the war spreads throughout the world the tasks of relief assigned to the Society increase until today there is no sphere of war activity that is not benefiting from the good works of this great organization.

Not only are Canadians and Britons receiving the help of the Canadian people through the Red Cross, but supplies and comforts are always being sent to the armed forces and peoples of the United Nations. For example, the Society recently raised $750,000 to send medical and relief supplies to Russia.

The financial needs of the St. John Ambulance are also included in the budget of the Red Cross.

Coleman's share of the $9,000,000 is $900. Canvassers have already been chosen and on Monday will start soliciting funds in their respective districts. Citizens are asked to determine beforehand just what amount they can best afford to donate to the Red Cross and have their donations ready when the canvassers call.

The work of the canvassers is purely voluntary. Newspapers and theatres have depicted time and time again the work of the Canadian Red Cross in war and other disasters so that no one is ignorant of the great work accomplished by this great organization. Give generously and receive the canvassers with the courtesy they deserve.

Mrs. Hannah Gate Passed Away Tuesday Morning

Came to Coleman in 1904; Had Been Active in Lodge Work; Lengthy Illness.

Death came quietly to Mrs. Hannah Elizabeth Gate, aged 68, early Tuesday morning at the local hospital following a lengthy illness. Deceased had been admitted to hospital one week previously.

She was born at Crosby, Maryland, Cumberland, England, in 1874, and spent her youth there. In 1893 she was married there to Mr. Harry Gate. In 1903 Mr. Gate came to Coleman and was followed the next year by Mrs. Gate. They built the residence on Main street which has been her home till her death.

In the premises now occupied by Webster's store she owned and managed a dry goods store for twenty years. She was an insurance agent for many years and continued in that business till her death.

Her husband pre-deceased her on June 4, 1927, he having been pitted at McGillivray mine for many years and still remembered well by many local residents.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Roy Thomas, Mrs. A. F. Short and Mrs. A. Hart, all of Coleman, and three sons, William and Harry, of Coleman, and Joe, who is serving overseas, sixteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Many Entries Received For Amateur Contest

War Savings Certificates and Stamps to be Awarded Contest Winners; Artists Coming From Lethbridge.

Satisfactory response has been received by the Elks' committee for the amateur contest on Monday, May 25, to their plea for early entries by prospective contestants. Many entries have been received by J. M. Ruston and Herb. Sherratt.

Pilot Officer G. W. Shaffer, of Lethbridge, will be master of ceremonies. He is the M.C. who put pep and sparkle into the concert in which Miss Sunshine appeared to launch the local second Victory Loan. He will likely be prevailed upon to play his piano accordion at which he is so adept. He is bringing with him a number of artists from Lethbridge air school who will add to the entertainment.

The bulk of the entries have been received from Coleman artists. It is the ambition of the committee to have as many outside entries as possible and many talented artists are known to reside at Fernie, Natal, Michel, Blairmore, Frank, Bellevue and Hillest. These young people are given a hearty invitation to enter and can rest assured that the "Brother Bill" will do their utmost to make their brief stay in Coleman as pleasant as possible.

Prizes in each class of entertainment will be $5 war savings certificate for first prize and war stamps valued at $2.50 and $1.25 for second and third prizes. Proceeds will be contributed to the Elks' Charity fund.

D'APOLLONIA - d'APOLLONIA

A wedding of much interest to Coleman's younger set took place at Edmonton on Saturday, May 2, when Violet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph d'Apollonia, of Edmonton, became the bride of Elio, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. D'Apollonia, of Coleman. The service took place in Sacred Heart church, the reception being held at the Corona hotel.

The bride recently graduated from the Misericordia hospital as a nurse, while the groom graduated this year from Alberta university as a civil engineer. Following a honeymoon at Coleman and Creston the young couple will make their home in Montreal, where the groom has been engaged on a government project.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. D'Apollonia motored to the northern city for the wedding.

Collective Security

The first Great War was a conflict waged to end all wars, and to make the world safe for democracy. It is not the purpose here to analyze the various causes that have brought the world to its present catastrophic condition. It will suffice to say that if there had been a unanimity of purpose on the part of all the free-loving peoples after the peace of Versailles we might not today be forced to endure a second cataclysm. Experience is a great teacher, and we can well profit from the knowledge gained by the tragic events of the past few years. Again we hear the oft-repeated phrase that there shall be no repetition of a struggle for world domination. The patent fact is that unless the democratic peoples of the world will stand firmly united, there can be no definite assurance of future peace. There is every reason to believe that the subjugated nations will enter into any plan that would lead to their national security in the future. The experiences they are now passing through would certainly warrant this conclusion.

World Revolution

In the last war, nations which fought with the Allied cause are now in league with the forces of destruction. The peoples who were our friends are now our enemies. The present war has been more fittingly termed a world revolution, as there are now few nations who are not directly or indirectly engaged in this life and death struggle. How are we to determine on whom we can depend to keep the peace in future? It would seem that only by the formation of a Commonwealth of Nations, closely knit in a common ideal and purpose, can we hope to maintain our freedom of thought and action, and guard ourselves against aggression. In such a covenant there could be no concept of neutrality or selfish isolationism, or rival nationalism. It must be created in a spirit that will not hesitate to make any sacrifice necessary to maintain a world at peace.

A Directive Force

It would appear fitting that the English-speaking democracies could well take a prominent lead in the direction of a force of world opinion that would never again countenance any act of aggression or any collective movement to disrupt the peace. The Atlantic Charter elaborated by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill is the initial step in this direction. The declaration was subscribed to by twenty-six United Nations, many of them suffering under the heel of the oppressor. It will require a strong directing force in the years ahead, and the closest form of collaboration. We shall have to guard against any injustice, either economic or social. The fundamental principle of democracy that all men as well as nations should enjoy equal opportunity must be maintained. Trade restrictions will of necessity have to be removed, and the principles of social justice extended to all nations. Only by setting an example of true democracy in our relations with other peoples can we be assured of a strong force of united nations that will stand firmly together to oppose the aggressor.

Must Use One Measure

Cord Of Wood When Stacked Contains 128 Cubic Feet

How much is a cord of wood?

In case you do not know, the War-time Prices and Trade Board has decided the point because a cord of wood has been far from a uniform measure in the past. A. R. Mackie, Saskatchewan prices and supply representative, announces:

According to J. McGe Stewart, coal administrator, a cord of wood from now on will be 128 cubic feet of stacked wood.

In the past, three and four-foot lengths were piled up and they measured the height of a cord of wood, but not necessarily the width. Every three-foot length meant a one-foot block missing, and 20 or 30 of such lengths meant a fair-sized amount of wood missing.

There is to be one measure across Canada for a cord of wood and it is to be 128 cubic feet. Further, every primary producer or dealer in wood shall prepare an invoice to cover every sale of fuelwood with the invoice the quantity by cord, or fraction of a cord, sold and the invoice shall be delivered to the consumer along with the wood.

Sawdust is not regarded as fuelwood under the terms of the War-time Prices and Trade Board order.

Just One Letter

Not Painted On Rolling Stock Meant Saving For Railway

Now that salvage and economy are very much in the foreground, says J. C. K. in Marketing. I recall a story of one of the British railroads—the Great Western. A keen-witted clerk in the employ of the company submitted a suggestion that if the letter "R" were no longer painted on the company's rolling stock an appreciable saving might be effected.

The suggestion was adopted, and after a time only the letter "G W" appeared on the rolling stock. The saving resulting the first year was £7,000.

Wanted To Be Clean

Commando Officer Took His Bath Before Going On Raid

Britain's Commandos aren't always as tough as they're made out to be. The last thing one officer did before he boarded the ship for a recent Boulogne coast raid was to take a bath.

"Just a precaution," he said. "If I'm taken prisoner, I at least want to be clean."

One day later he was sitting below deck muddying his face and hands with burnt cork.

The Individual Citizen's Army

A Weekly Column About This And That In The Canadian Army.
By Alan Maurice Irwin

Very few people get to read their own "obituaries." Mark Twain did, and found his "greatly exaggerated." Mine said, very definitely, that last week's article was the last in the series named "The Individual Citizen's Army."

Well, the title is up to the Editor. As far as I am concerned the new series—if he uses it—will still be "The Individual Citizen's Army."

No Chief of the General Staff, No General Officer Commanding an Army in the field, no Admiral of the Fleet can fight a war these days unless he has someone at home spiritually in the Army or Navy with him.

That means we are all fighting. We need training, some of us one way, some another. We all want to help. But we can't help unless we know how.

So, if you'll let me, I'll see what I can find out about the ways in which we can "slope arms" in our daily life—always remembering that after we have learned to slope arms there comes the command "fix bayonets."

"Lead-swinger," as any old soldier knows, means a man who feigns illness to get out of doing his regular duties. He is looked upon, at first sight, as a smart guy who has "put one over" the Medical Officer.

But, as the fair sex points out when referring to the order in which man and woman were created, second thoughts are best, and it is not very long before the "lead-swingers" feel fellow soldiers are full of scorn and contempt for him. They realize that in addition to putting one over the Medical Officer he is putting one over them: for someone has to do the duty he shirks.

The worst lead-swinger in the Individual Citizen's Army which is all of us today is the man or woman who uses gasoline unnecessarily.

This morning as I came down to work I looked, idly at first, and then with mounting indignation, at the stream of cars passing with only one person in each. I have no doubt that you have felt the same way many a time.

Do you think the same way about it when you have an errand to do? Or do you just hop into the car and drive off?

Some little time ago one of these columns was devoted to the jaunty soldiers of the Armoured Corps. They, and the airmen who bomb Germany and the Philippines; they and the men who man the submarines and motor torpedo boats are the men we should save our gasoline for.

There is nothing very jaunty-looking about a soldier who has been taken prisoner or killed. I know so do many of you I have seen them. And men are going to be taken prisoner and killed if they move their mobile forts—whether they be tanks, armoured cars, universal carriers, bombers or submarines become immobilized for lack of gasoline.

A horrible thought? Sure it is. But that is how close the war is to us. One extra joy-ride or one trip by car that could have been carried out afoot may mean the hair's breadth that separate life and death for the men in uniform.

So, walking to work, even walking to the movies, can be a form of war-work, a form of soldiering in the Individual Citizen's Army.

And observing food and price regulations is another way of serving.

At Basic and Advanced Training Centres in camp and on active service soldiers and sailors put in long hours at strenuous work. Their training simulates actual fighting—and actual fighting burns up energy.

To replace that energy good, hearty meals must be supplied. That's where the careful observer of the food regulations comes in. Every time the household privates use a little less than their sugar ration or bake a cake with a substitute for sugar, they are releasing that much energy for Canada's "Men at Arms."

And the housewife Lance-Corporal—or is she at least a Major in your house?—who puts together a tasty mess of shank-bone, onions, carrots, a little—not too much—pleasant turnip and a sage leaf or two instead of calling up the grocer for a can or two of this or that enrolls herself in the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps by leaving just a little more metal available for arms, ammunition or even tanks.

Here's a list of kitchen ammunition. One cup of refined white sugar can be replaced by: maple sugar, one cup; maple syrup, one cup; honey,

Destroyer Used Sails

When Engine Trouble Developed Captain Resorted To Old Method

When the convoy a British destroyer was escorting was about 150 miles from home a gale got up, the destroyer's engines developed a defect, and being unable to keep her head on a safe course she shipped a sea which did much damage, ripped off a hatch-cover and flooded the after compartments.

As the gale abated the wind blew fur for home, and rather than ask for assistance which would take another ship of important escort duty, the destroyer's captain got up his sails from his whaler, together with one salvaged from a merchant ship's lifeboat, set them on his fore stay and sailed his ship the 150 miles home—London Times.

Is Your Liver Poisoning You?

Are you sick and tired out every morning—always constipated—can't eat without pain and distress? Your liver is poisoning your system—permanent ill health may be the result!

● Your liver is the largest organ in your body and most important to your health. It supplies energy to muscles, tissues and glands. If unhealthy, your body lacks this energy and becomes enfeebled—youthful vim disappears. Again your liver pours out bile to digest food, get rid of waste and allow your blood to reach your blood. When your liver gets out of order proper digestion and nourishment stop—you're poisoned with the waste that decomposes in your intestines. Nervous troubles and rheumatic pains arise from this poison. You become constipated, stomach and kidneys can't work properly. The whole system is affected and you feel "crabby," headache, backache, dizzy, tired out—a ready prey for sickness and disease.

Thousands of people are never sick, and have won prompt relief from these miseries with "Improved Fruit-Lives Liver Tablets." The liver is toned up, the other organs function normally and lasting good health results. Today "Improved Fruit-Lives" are Canada's largest-selling liver tablets. They must be good! BRITAIN IS DRAFTING MEN FROM CIVIL DEFENCE FORCES FOR EXPANDING WAR INDUSTRY

London.—Underlining the need for still greater production as the corollary of any offensive against the continent, Britain is drafting 83,000 men from the civil defence forces and placing them in expanding war industry.

Part-time personnel, called up by the government will fill gaps in the defence line-up, under direction of Home Secretary Minister Morrison.

Announcing the decision to reduce civil defence forces by one-third, Mr. Morrison said his intention was to use the men of A.R.P. staffs and casualty clearing and rescue squads for "offensive action instead of defensive thinking."

Full-time civilian defence workers who are not released for work in war industry will be required to do such work as snow-removal and coal-delivery where able. Persons released will be obliged to return to whole-time civil defence in the event of heavy air raids.

For nearly a year this army of potential workers has had little to do while across the channel the heavy industry on which the German army relies has taken such a pounding from the Royal Air Force that some 1,500,000 Germans have been "pinned down" or immobilized for defence work.

"The country is burning to get on with the offensive and the home front is quiet," said Mr. Morrison. "If any risk of weakening our civil defence is involved it is a risk which I know the country is more than ready to take."

The press welcomed the move to end what is viewed as extravagant use of manpower in civil defence when raids are confined to nuisance attacks. Also, experience has shown there can be no complete immunity from danger no matter how many are engaged in civil defence duties.

Bulk of these part-time workers who are to be conscripted to fill the gaps in the defence services will be women, and hardship tribunals will be set up in every locality to hear appeals by women who claim that for health or exceptional personal hardship reasons they are unable to take up the work.

Consolation to the already hard-working Britons is evidence that Germany faces a similar manpower problem. Advertisements in the French newspaper L'Ouvreu call urgently for craftsmen of all descriptions.

TO HOLD WORKERS

London.—A Russian broadcast said a new order has been established in Germany regarding salaries of foreign workers "by which they only get 75 per cent. of their earnings, the remaining 25 per cent. is kept back until they have finished their work."

STALIN DECLARES SOLE AIM OF RUSSIA IS THE COMPLETE DEFEAT OF FASCIST ARMIES

Moscow.—Premier Joseph Stalin in a May Day order of the day pledged that Russia has no territorial ambitions upon foreign countries and declared that the Soviet's sole aim is to liberate its lands from "the German Fascist blackguards."

Broadcasting his war report to the nation, the premier-defence commissar praised Great Britain and the United States for the increasing assistance he said they are giving Russia against the Germans.

He declared that Russia must "smash the German Fascist army and wipe out the German invaders to the last man if they will not surrender."

"There is no other alternative way," Stalin said that the only thing now lacking is the ability of the Red army men to utilize fully the first class technique which the fatherland is putting at their disposal against the enemy.

He ordered fighting branches of the Red army to master their weapons to perfection; told army commanders to become masters in leading their armies to make 1942 the year of the final defeat of the German Fascists; and instructed men and women guerrillas to wipe out the staff and equipment of the enemy in the rear and "to spare no bullets against the invaders of our fatherland."

Stalin told his people that Britain and the United States are "giving our country more and more military as-

RUBBER CONTROL

Further Restrictions On Use Have Been Announced

Ottawa.—Further tightening of control over use of reclaim rubber was announced by the Munitions and Supply department.

The department said Alan H. Williamson, controller of supplies, has advised manufacturers that reclaim rubber must not be used in the making of the following items:

Non-essential footwear, soles, heels, sports goods, toys, non-essential drug sundries, rubberized fabrics for the raincoating trade, automobile topping and upholstery, quarterlining, lining for perambulators, garden hose, mats, matting, straw treads, tractor and farm implement tires and tubes, automobile parts and accessories, tube repair kits, car mats, automobile heater hose, automobile weatherstripping, running board and sill mats and matting, defroster hose, jewelry boxes as original equipment for cars and trucks, and non-essential plumbers' supplies.

WON BY CANADA

Representation On Munitions Assignment Board Has Been Granted

Washington. Direct representation on the munitions assignment board, one of the top-ranking military organizations of the United Nations, has been won by Canada, it was reported here.

The board, ranking second only to the combined chiefs of staff committee, is confined at present to American and British experts on military supplies but will be expanded to include Canadian representation.

Canadian representation on the board is recognition of Canada's position as the third largest producer of surplus military supplies among the 26 United Nations.

EXPORT PERMITS

Required On Tea And Coffee To Conserve Canadian Supplies

Ottawa.—The department of trade and commerce announced that tea and coffee will require an export permit before being exported to any country.

Tea was previously under export control, but was exempted from requiring an export permit when shipped to any part of the British empire or to the United States. This exemption now is cancelled, and tea requires an export permit to any destination.

"These two commodities were placed under export control in order to conserve supplies in Canada," a departmental statement said.

NORWEGIAN BISHOP

Confined In Summer Cottage Surrounded By Barbed Wire

London.—Released from a concentration camp on Hitler's personal orders, Bishop Eivind Berggrav of Norway now is confined in a summer cottage guarded by 20 men and surrounded by barbed wire, Reuters reported, quoting the Stockholm Social Demokraten.

His "release" from the concentration camp was said to have been dictated by Norwegian political unrest over his imprisonment.

Reuters also reported that the Dean of Trondheim, Dr. Fjellbu, and his wife had been interned.

Man Released From Internment Camp Leading High School Speaker

Montreal.—Charles V. Wasserman, son of the late Jacob Wasserman, Austrian author, won the Rotary club first prize gold medal as Montreal's leading high school public speaker.

Wasserman was released from a Canadian internment camp in March, 1941. He was interned in England during the invasion threat in 1940 and was later transferred to Canada. His case was investigated by the British government and he was released.

AIR TRAINING CONFERENCE

Ottawa.—Sir William Glasgow, Australian high commissioner in Canada, will head Australia's delegation to the air training conference which opens here May 18, it was learned.

TEACHES NAVIGATION

Lieutenant Robert W. Southam, R.C.N.V.R., who has been appointed an instructor in navigation at King's college, Halifax, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Southam, Ottawa, Lieutenant Southam has been an officer in the R.C.N.V.R. since May, 1940. For several months he was stationed at Ottawa and later was on operational duty at sea as second in command of a corvette. He assumed his new duties at King's college, April 19.

TROUBLE IN ITALY

London. Rome radio heard in London, revealed that Mussolini has admitted a serious internal situation in Italy. According to Rome radio, the Fascist dictator told Italy's disaffected prefects that a lack of discipline and fraud has created an acute internal situation. Mussolini threatened "inexorable punishment" to the guilty persons.

Directs Commando Raids

Captain Lord Louis Mountbatten, cousin of the King, has been named chief of combined operations to supervise British commando raids. He will hold the acting rank of vice-admiral and the honorary ranks of lieutenant-general and air marshal. Here Mountbatten (left) poses with members of the crew of the aircraft carrier Illustrious. The Queen Wears A Maple Leaf

BRITISH LABOR MINISTRY WAS REPORTED PREPARING ORDER FOR LONGER WORKING HOURS

ARMY TRANSFERS

Should Leave Family Behind When Moving From One Station To Another

Ottawa.—The national defence department said it is "suggesting" to all army ranks that when they are transferred from one station to another they leave their families and dependents behind.

The suggestion was made because of "shortages of housing accommodation in communities close to army training centres across the Dominion."

"The department feels it unwise for the soldier to move his family when there is no certainty that he will remain long enough at his new post to warrant the trouble gone to," a department statement said.

"Avoidable expense will have been sustained and his family's social life uprooted. Experience has shown that when moved a second time, soldiers generally leave their dependents in the new community, which means that they have to readjust their lives and that they are deprived of the friendships made earlier elsewhere."

HELP IS NEEDED

More Classes Formed For Training Women In War Work

Saskatoon. Bombarded for two years by letters and vocal applications, pleas and appeals from women who wanted to work in war industries, W. A. Ross, Regina, regional director of war emergency training for Saskatchewan has given in at last.

Yielding not so much to feminine pressure as to the need of the country for more trained hands, Mr. Ross said here that classes in machine operating for women would be started in Saskatoon and Prince Albert this month and that similar classes would be launched later in Regina and Moose Jaw. The Saskatoon class will be conducted in the engineering shops at Saskatchewan University, starting May 4. The Prince Albert class will begin simultaneously in the war emergency training school conducted in the northern city.

London.—The labor ministry was reported to be preparing an order that would put jobs outside the munitions field on longer hours and shorter holidays.

A 52-hour week was mentioned for artisans, 46-hour week for white collar workers, exclusive of meal times. Vacations would be cut to a fortnight a year under the proposal reported under consideration. Some now run twice that.

Another control in the offing was one of the purchase and import and distribution of meat, butter and cheese. The idea was to concentrate the industry and save manpower.

Hundreds of smaller butchers and importers would be closed down if the plan took effect, observers said.

Britons were cheered by President Roosevelt's aggressive optimism and Hitler's implied pessimism in their recent speeches.

The stock markets were more buoyant after the Roosevelt address despite the gloomy news from Burma.

The accumulation of sterling credits by countries outside the lease-lend system was causing a dilemma here.

Argentina, Portugal and to some extent Spain have built up accounts by providing goods. The one-way trade caused by an unavoidable drying up of exports from Britain has occasioned some discontent.

The experts have tried explaining to neutrals, but their talk has not stopped the swelling of funds.

Most of the controversy over fuel rationing has died down and it appeared the program for "rationing and rationalization" of the coal industry would go through despite premised opposition.

Several thousand young policemen have been called up, mostly to swell the Commando forces, where high standards of physical fitness and intelligence can be used. Paper traps for grain stacks will give conserved farmers their next shock. There is a shortage of the men who ordinarily thatch the stacks to keep water from spilling the grain; now special paper that costs 14 a stack does the job that would cost 16 if thatching were used.

MALTA IS GRATEFUL

Sent Message To The King For Bestowing Honor On Island

London. The heaviest bombed Mediterranean fortress of Malta sent a message of thanks to the King for the George Cross which was recently bestowed upon the island, the British Broadcasting Corporation reported. The message said: "The knowledge of His Majesty's solicitude gives us additional confidence and fortitude."

DISSEMINATION OF NEWS IN OCCUPIED COUNTRIES ONLY CARRIED ON WITH GRAVE RISK

London.—Death is the price exact and reports of sabotage thousands of readers of tiny news sheets in Belgium, Holland, Norway, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Yugoslavia and Greece gladly risk of Europe.

While "La Libre Belgique" is the most famous, foreign governments in London report that for every one underground paper of 25 years ago, there are 20 now.

Some are simply mimeographed sheets; some depicted typewritten sheets; some not even that elaborate—just pieces of foolscap covered in longhand.

Copies come out irregularly, but they come out. If the editor and his staff are shot, others take their places.

The most famous of these is the revived "La Libre Belgique"—which the Kaiser sought for four years to drown in editorial blood.

Belgian sources say the paper flourishes today with its oldtime vigor although at least one editor and several distributors have been shot.

Each copy, handed from hand to hand, has thousands of readers. Some times it is baked into a loaf of bread, sometimes hidden between the leaves of some Nazi book.

For its editor there are no rewards except death. The articles are unsigned. There are no salaries. Paper and presses are at a premium. "Each slim issue contains news gleaned from British and American broadcasts."

There also are savage editorials denouncing Hitler's henchmen, instructions on how the populace should

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring

Yes they bring promise of merry sunshine, sung of so sprightly in Gilbert & Sullivan's opera, "The Mikado," which the Japanese banned long before the present war broke out. No matter what disruptions may be taking place all over the world, Nature keeps on its inexorable round of the seasons, and the Springtime brings renewed life, happiness and optimism. It brings home the realization that no matter what happens in the field of human or international relationships, nothing can interfere with the powers that are mightier than any that man may devise. Our little likes and dislikes, our personal feelings, count as nought in the face of the ever onward march of Time and Nature's own laws.

Appointment Proves Popular Among Railroaders

The elevation of Vice-President D. C. Coleman to the presidency of that great transportation system, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, in succession to Sir Edward Beatty, is the climax to a lifelong career of railroading. Mr. Coleman's experience was gained largely in Western Canada, for he was vice-president of western lines with headquarters at Winnipeg for many years, and earlier in his career served on some of the mountain divisions, including Cranbrook.

He was courteous in dealing with delegations that not infrequently called on him, and was fair in stating why at times requests could not be complied with. A delegation at one time from a town on the western lines requested that he give them a few minutes interview, as his train was in the district, on one of the annual inspection tours. A request for a new station building was presented, and Mr. Coleman's reply was that though the company believed in progress, their expenditures had to be governed in keeping with the revenue, the same as any business man in the delegation would deal with his own business. But he promised to keep the request in mind, and if conditions warranted the improvement, it would be made. It subsequently was.

He started at the lowest rung on the ladder and by ability proved his worth. Each of the company's presidents has served with distinction, and the new president is accorded good wishes not only from railroaders but from a large circle of acquaintances and friends he has met during his career.

Forty Miles Per Hour

Commercial travellers who have to cover a lot of territory each week naturally have to make the best use of their time in driving, with the result that most of the time their speed exceeded 40 miles per hour. Now, with the slower speed regulation in force, they have time to glance around occasionally. The slackening of speed will enable them to drive under less tension, and as one traveller remarked, he saw buildings and signs that he never noticed before, so intently were his eyes glued to the road ahead. 40 miles is a reasonable speed and it should help to reduce accidents on the highways. There is a noticeable decrease in travelling the highways just for pleasure, as many car drivers find that the restriction of tire production has more to do with keeping their cars off the road than the gasoline rationing.

On short drives the slower speed makes little difference. On the long drives, say from 100 to a thousand miles, it will of course add to the length of time taken in travelling, and Alberta has comparatively little surfaced highway, 40 miles an hour is almost the limit at which one can travel safely on gravelled highways.

Co-operation by the driving public will, or should be accorded, and in most cases necessity will compel them to observe the rule.

Willing Volunteer War Workers

In every city and town, drives for war services funds are carried on by people who realize that only by giving their time can the objectives be attained. They shoulder the responsibility because they realize it is a part of their self-imposed duty. Usually, it is the same group who figure in every drive, for there are some who either are unconscious of their duty, or who raise various alibis why they cannot help. Usually the willing workers are the busiest people, but they make time by working harder and utilizing the time that otherwise they would take for leisure. They should be accorded a courteous reception, and meet with a generous response.

Excuses are a poor substitute. Everyone will be called on for the coming Red Cross drive. To save time in explanations, people would render canvassers and the Red Cross Society a service if they would decide in advance just what they will give, either in cash donations or monthly pledges. Regard it as an obligation which must be filled to the last cent. Remember that if you are not a worker, it is all the more reason why you should respond promptly and as liberally as possible.

Oculist Has Succeeded In Developing Artificial Eye That Moves

An artificial eye that moves in conjunction with the real one, something doctors have been seeking for years, has been developed by a New Orleans oculist who reports its successful use in dozens of cases.

The eye is made of lucite, a commercial plastic which can be fitted to the muscles to permit motion.

He has not yet made his discovery available for commercial manufacture but has employed it in his private practice and in treatment of charity patients at the L.S.U. clinics.

Fashion goes feminine in the afternoon... witness the soft lines of Pattern 4026 by Anne Adams! The scalloped "petal" yokes are new and match the high-cut skirt sections. Doesn't the little sash in front add a beguiling touch? An all-round belt is optional. This is an easy-to-cut dress because of the princess paneling in back and the long panel in front that are both so slenderizing. Let the Sewing Instructor guide you!

Pattern 4026 is available in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric. Send twenty cents (20c) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly Size, Name, Address and Style Number and send orders to the Anne Adams Pattern Dept., Winnipeg Newspaper Union, 175 McDermott Ave. E., Winnipeg, Man.

No Vacation This Year

German Children Must Work In Factories And On Farms

German high school boys and girls will spend their summer vacations this year working in munitions factories under a plan mobilizing all Berlin labor resources, according to Berlin despatches to the Basel National Zeitung at Berne, Switzerland.

Younger students are being mobilized for farm work, and schools in some sectors will be closed immediately so they may go into field camps, the despatches declared.

Within a few weeks, it was said, there will be scarcely a German man or woman not engaged in some manner of war work.

The biggest gaps in the labor front, however, will be filled by increasing use of war prisoners and civilians imported from conquered lands, the despatches reported.

SO YOU'RE GOING TO DO A PLAY?

I promised you a list of plays to read during the summer, both one and three acts. Here they are, and don't think they are difficult to recite. Next week, I'll give you details for that too. Here are the plays:

Three Act Plays
"The Little Foxes," a story of a woman who distrusted all the other members of her family, who was ruthless, avaricious, and tyrannical. But retribution came in the end through her daughter. It's a thrilling play.
"The Male Animal," the story of a college professor who was a little out of the usual run and how things did get stormy, but later turned out alright.

"Elhan Frome," a story of a triangle which ended in tragedy, but every line grips at your heart.
"The Talley Method," the story of a woman who made up her mind that she didn't want to marry her fiancé after all, but was good friends with his family.

"Life With Father," a comedy, the story of a son whose father still insisted on ruling the home. It is a riot.

"Arsenic and Old Lace," now being made into a movie, is the story of two older maiden ladies who rent out rooms and what happens to the roomers after they drink some elderberry wine. Good mystery.

"Ladies in Retirement," now made into a picture, the story of what lengths a woman will go to to protect her sisters. Good mystery story.

"The Lost Colony," written by Paul Green when the people in Roanoke Colony wished to celebrate the 325th anniversary of the coming of Raleigh's followers years ago.

There are many others. If you are interested write to the various publishers and ask for copies of their catalogues, and to have your name placed on the mailing list for regular bulletins.

One Act Plays

From Samuel French the other day, I received a bundle of plays either non-royalty or on a royalty holiday. I am here giving you a list and price of copies:

"Mrs. O'Leary's Cow," comedy, five women, two men, budget play, buy seven copies at 30c each to produce play.
"A Ghostly Evening," comedy, five women, three men, budget play, rollicking play.

"The Phantom Gentlemen," melodrama, three women, two men, budget play.

"The Ghost Named Henry," three women, three men, Scotch comedy, budget play.

"Curse You Jack Dalton," four women, three men, budget, old fashioned melodrama.

"She Was Only A Farmer's Daughter," five women, three men, old fashioned melodrama, budget.

"Up In Arms Affair," one woman, four men, budget, mystery comedy.

"Sister Sue," four women, four men, comedy of youth, budget, good for young people.

Plays on royalty holiday until July 1, 1945. One copy for each member of the cast must be purchased to secure right to produce from the publisher.

"Frederick," three women, five men, good for young people. A sixteen-year-old boy wants to be an actor. His parents object. It all works out.

"Where the Buffalo Roam," three women, three men. The story of an English woman who comes to visit relatives on the prairies.

"Little Darling," two men, four women. A younger sister keeps her sister's dates arranged and to suit her own ideas. Good for young people.

There are many others which will be found on the pages of the catalogues. I mentioned the above, having read them. I think younger people would enjoy working them out. Mary Ellen Burgess, Box 326, Regina.

Growth Of Crops

Legume Inoculation And Supply Of Nitrogen

For many centuries it has been recognized that plants belonging to the legume family—beans, peas, clovers, vetches, alfalfa and others—differ in a striking way from other cultivated plants in the effect of the growth of crops on the state of fertility of the soil. Whereas all non-legumes are dependent upon the supply of nitrogen in the soil, the legumes are able to draw on the unlimited quantity of this element in the air.

In order to make use of the nitrogen in the air, legumes require the co-operation of bacteria, and that without the proper bacteria they are forced, like non-legumes, to depend upon the nitrogen in the soil. These useful nitrogen gathering bacteria, if present in the soil, enter the roots of the legumes, where they grow and multiply, stimulating the root to grow a small knot or tubercle, commonly called a nodule, at the point at which they enter.

Just how this inoculation with its beneficial effects is effected is fully explained in the War Time Production Series Pamphlet No. 32 "Legume Inoculation," which may be obtained free by writing to the Publicity and Extension Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Explanations and Comments

The Traders Cast Out of the Temple. Matthew 21:12-14. The top of Mount Moriah, one of the hills of Jerusalem, had been leveled and then enlarged by building up walls from the Valley of the Kedron and filling in. This whole enclosure, nearly a thousand feet square, was called the temple. Terrace upon terrace rose the various courts: first the Court of the Gentiles, then the Court of the Women, next the Court of Israelites, and last of all the Court of the Priests. Within the latter, in the northwestern part of the entire area, rose the sanctuary, or temple proper itself. When the temple was being built, so great was the reverence for the House of God that the blocks were made ready in the quarry so that they could be put together without the sound of a hammer. But now in the first court, the Court of the Gentiles, there were money-changers who, as Jesus said, were making the Lord's house a den of robbers instead of a house of prayer. (Isa. 56:7).

Money-changers were a necessity, but they were not necessary within the temple courts. The temple poll-tax of a half-shekel was paid at the Passover feast, and there were also contributions to be made for the morning and evening sacrifices, all of which had to be paid in Jewish money. "We can picture to ourselves the scene," writes Dr. Edersheim: "The weighing of the coins, the deductions for loss of weight, the arguing, disputing, bargaining—and we can realize the terrible truthfulness of our Lord's charge that they had made the Father's house a mart and place of traffic."

In righteous wrath Jesus drove out the traders and overthrew the tables of the money-changers. That was marvelous power which caused so many to retire before the moral force of One! The "Gentle Jesus, meek and mild," was also, when occasion called for wrath, "a consuming fire." In King Lear, when the Earl of Kent desires to attach himself to the exiled king he gives as his reason, "You have that in your face that I would fain call master-authority." This master-authority was in the face of Christ, and all yielded to it without a protest.

EGGS AND POULTRY

WATCH YOUR DIET

Are you a Dagwood Bumstead, grabbing a cup of coffee for breakfast and dashing madly out the door?

What did you have for breakfast this morning? Orange juice and coffee? Maybe just toast and coffee. Perhaps nothing at all? That's a bad habit, according to the Health League of Canada.

Between dinner and breakfast is the longest gap in time that comes between any meals and when you get up in the morning your stomach is nearly empty. Therefore, it is pointed out, you have no food to call on as a source of energy all morning, and your work and all your activities will suffer.

The Health League advises a fruit or fruit juice first for breakfast. Next, you should have either cereal with milk or cream or some cooked dish of eggs or meat, like sausage or bacon with or without pancakes. Toasted whole wheat bread is better than ordinary white bread, because it has more Vitamin B.

One of the most important food elements in breakfast, for adults and children both, says the experts, is milk. Plenty of it should be available for cereals or cocoa or just to take plain, along with the above-suggested food.

Delivered Mail

Woman Volunteer To Take Place Of Postman In Victoria

The war has given Victoria its first woman letter-carrier. Postmaster G. H. Gardiner, unable to find a man to replace a regular postman who was ill, appealed to an employment service and Mrs. Florence Blanchard volunteered. She donned an armband and regular "postman" cap and delivered the mail without a hitch. Gardiner said more women would be similarly employed if necessary.

ONE CONSOLATION

There still are far too many joy-riders on rubber and the only consolation, says the Niagara Falls Review, is that at their present speeds, they soon will wear out tires and use up gasoline allocations and thus will be off the roads soon.

A Boon To Renters

Revised rental regulations of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board are aimed to stop abuses that grew up under the earlier code.

Under the plea of requiring the premises for his own occupancy, a landlord now must give his tenant three months' notice to vacate; must furnish reasonable proof that the accommodation is needed by himself and undertake to live in the vacated premises for the ensuing year.

Upon renting premises to new tenants, the landlord must furnish them (on forms procurable from the Regional office of the Board) with a statement of the rent paid by the previous tenant and other necessary information and mail a copy of the statement to the nearest Regional office of the Board.

Landlords must not increase rents without permission of the Board. They may, however, apply for permission to increase rents where they have had taxes or water rates increased since January 1, 1941; have made substantial additions or alterations; supplied additional services or equipment or are now renting rooms furnished, which previously were rented unfurnished. Hotels must post maximum rate schedules in rooms, which must not exceed the rates in effect on October 11, 1941.
